Registrar – Barbara, received communication from the new Area Registrar, Tim W. The listing of GSRs is not complete, with two newly formed groups not being listed. I'll be looking into why. Please review the sign in sheet and initial it that you've reviewed your information.

PI/CPC – Greg, Kaiser presentation went well on the 17th, and we will return every 8 weeks. Letters have been sent to AK Bean and Healthy Partnership DUI School. We have a new member and we are working on our presentations. Trying not to overcommit with presentations. Received good info at Area and made some contacts. Need funds for literature rack and video tape presentations.

Literature/Grapevine – Kate M., beginning in June Grapevine articles will now be available on audio by download. Visit the AAGrapevine.org site to download. Cost is $4.95 for the current issue or $44.95 for a whole year for both print and audio magazines. Beginning July 1st, back issues, the Home Group Revisited and wall calendar will see increases due to production and handling costs. June Grapevine has 3 stories from native Americans.

Bridging the Gap – We are currently trying to fill this position

Area Officers report – David N., make your reservations now for a place to stay at the Summer Assembly. Remember to bring your FM radio transmitter; also you can still make suggestions for workshop topics.
